SENIOR PEER COUNSELING

SENIOR PEER COUNSELING

The Aging Clinic of the Rockies' Senior Peer Counseling program seeks to help older adults in Larimer County by connecting them with trained paraprofessionals, who are also seniors. As older adults themselves, peer counselors are often able to understand and connect with clients' experiences in unique and meaningful ways.

HOW CAN PEER COUNSELING HELP ME?

Although there are many positive aspects of aging, there can also be common difficulties including sadness, worry, loneliness, physical illness and disability, cognitive decline, and grief and loss. Peer counseling can often improve the quality of life and well-being of older adults through social connection, emotional support, and companionship. Senior peer counselors are warm, respectful, and kind, men and women over the age of 60, who trained and supervised by mental health professionals.

SENIOR PEER COUNSELING SERVICES ARE OFFERED IN BOTH INDIVIDUAL AND GROUP FORMATS:

INDIVIDUAL PEER COUNSELING

Counseling sessions can take place wherever you and your counselor are comfortable; whether it be at the Aging Clinic of the Rockies, a coffee shop, the senior center, or in your home. You and your counselor will also decide when and how often to meet (typically once per week). You and your counselor can work together to set goals, resolve issues, practice skills, and achieve objectives.

GROUP SUPPORT SERVICES

Support groups are also frequently offered and run by peer counselors. Group settings can provide an opportunity to work with counselors and meet others who are dealing with similar issues. Times and locations vary. Please call (970) 491-6795 for the most up to date information.

HOW MUCH DO SENIOR PEER COUNSELING SERVICES COST?

These services are offered FREE of charge for residents of Larimer County. This program is funded through a partnership between Colorado State University and Larimer County Office on Aging.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A SENIOR PEER COUNSELOR?

Most Senior Peer Counselors report that they gain personally by becoming part of a Peer Counseling program. Volunteers will initially meet with a program coordinator in order to assess program fit. If selected, volunteers will attend training sessions that will prepare them to be competent and successful peer counselors. Upon successful completion of the training stage, peer counselors will be assigned clients and receive ongoing supervision and training.

If you are interested in volunteering as a peer counselor or getting more information about the program, please call Aging Clinic of the Rockies at (970) 491-6795.
